EXPERIENCE

Disney College Program
Food and Beverage Hostess [September 2024 - January 2025] Orlando, FL Sep 2024 - Spring 2025

- Worked in a guest-facing role at Walt Disney World, providing efficient counter service in a high-volume quick-service restaurant. Responsibilities included handling food distribution, restocking, and maintaining cleanliness to meet operational demands.
    - Efficiency - Quickly adapted to fast-paced, high-pressure situations by making on-the-spot decisions to keep service running smoothly, such as finding workarounds for missing items or rerouting guests to reduce wait times.
    - Customer Service - Regularly handled frustrated guests with patience and professionalism, maintaining a positive and welcoming attitude, using Disney's guest service approach to turn negative experiences into positive ones.
    - Teamwork - Worked closely with teammates to maintain an efficient workflow, adjusting roles as needed to prevent bottlenecks and keep up with guest demand.
    - Adaptability – Managed physically demanding shifts, balancing speed and accuracy while standing for long hours, multitasking during peak rushes, and staying energized to deliver a magical guest experience.

Freelance Artist 2019 - Current

- As a freelance artist, I create custom illustrations and designs, both digitally and traditionally. I love bringing people's ideas to life with my art style while capturing the client's vision. It's all about turning ideas into eye-catching artwork!

BoxLunch Newark, CA Summer 2023 - Summer 2024

Sales Associate [June 2023 - Current]

- As a sales associate, I efficiently managed the register, accurately processed customer transactions, and handled cash and credit card payments. By leveraging my in-depth knowledge of different pop culture franchises, I effectively contributed to sales growth, successfully promoting and selling merchandise to passionate fans and collectors.

Level 1 Manager [October 2023 - August 2024]

- Although I started as a sales associate, I rapidly progressed to level 1 manager, where, in addition to sales responsibilities, I handled store closure procedures, including register and safe reconciliation. I manage returns, respond to emails, and oversee shipment processing. Taking a proactive approach, I mentor coworkers, guiding them to help improve their performance. I actively engage in suggesting and implementing improvements, fostering a dynamic and efficient work environment.

Freestyle Academy Mountain View, Ca 05/2021

Prom Coordinator

- As the co-event coordinator of Freestyle Academy's Prom for the class of 2021, I collaborated closely with a team of volunteers, overseeing everything from venue selection and decoration to entertainment and catering.
- Time management was a critical aspect of our work, as we had to ensure that each task was completed efficiently and on schedule. With my team, we divided responsibilities, delegated tasks, and maintained regular communication to keep everyone on track.

"Little Wooden Boy" Union City, CA Summer 2022

Stop Motion Director and Producer

- As the sole creator of a stop-motion short film created for a contest based on the movie Pinocchio by Guillermo del Toro, I took multiple roles, including animator, video editor, set designer, and puppet builder.
- I designed and constructed sets that captured the essence of the Pinocchio story, carefully selecting thematically relevant materials.
- Using my skills in animation, I brought the puppets to life, capturing their movements frame by frame and infusing them with personality and emotion.
- During post-production, I edited footage and applied color-grading techniques to enhance the film's visual impact.

Web Designer Union City, Ca 09/2021

' UNIVERSMESS.COM '

- As the web designer of a WordPress webpage for a small business, I designed a visually appealing website that accurately represented the brand.
- With the use of CSS and HTML, I refined the look of the website, ensuring it was easy to navigate for users as well as visually engaging.
